

Tax & Financial
Professional Center, Inc.SM

Information Technology

Home and Business Computer Support

Michael McDonald

Qualifications - Mike Mc Donald is a Microsoft Certified Systems Engineer who works for you because you are part of the Tax & Financial Professional Center, Inc.SM Mike can install, upgrade, design, re-design, re-configure, re-install your entire network. He is committed to restoring lost or damaged data as well as data protection management and storage.

As a client, you receive discounted prices on all Computer IT services

We can provide a number of technological services for your business starting with general computer maintenance, networking and troubleshooting issues or website design and development. Listed below are services that the Tax and Financial Professional Center's Information and Technology department specializes in.

We are certified as Microsoft Certified Systems Engineer. Our technician can install, upgrade, design, re-design, move, re-configure, re-install, review the network layout, and design the overall function your computer network. This will allow your company's information to move continuously without error.